R-19. If recipient's conduct is in any way damaging to the name of Youth Focus Inc., or its affiliates, said scholarship awards shall become null and void and will automatically be canceled without further notice.

R-20. Scholarship monies and awards will not be paid if there is any financial indebtedness due to the Youth Focus Inc., incurred by the recipient. This rule applies to ticket money, production costs, or any other form of monetary indebtedness due the Youth Focus Inc.

R-21. Scholarship monies and awards will not be disbursed or issued if recipient has not completed and signed all the necessary forms and documents pertaining to her participation in the events conducted by Youth Focus Inc. or if the recipient leaves the competition prior to the completion of the Scholarship Luncheon on Sunday following the Saturday night finals.

R-22. Notwithstanding, any provision herein contained to the contrary, the Youth Focus Inc., reserves the right to disapprove or reject any request for scholarship use of awards, for any reason if it is felt or believed that said request or recipient thereof has not fulfilled the requirements to the California State Youth Accolades Scholarship Program.

R-23. No oral or written statement in respect to Entrants rights, privileges, and responsibilities and those of the California State Youth Accolades Program, shall be binding, except as set forth in this writing.

R-24. Youth Focus Inc. will not be responsible for any expenditures for any purpose, beyond the stipulated amount of the scholarship.

R-25. Recipient understands that certain Special Scholarship Awards may have been promised by certain businesses and individuals and are to be awarded at the discretion of said businesses and individuals. Should businesses or individuals not provide said promised scholarship awards, recipient understands that the California State Youth Accolades Scholarship Program, will not be held liable nor will the Association be responsible for the monetary value of said prizes and awards.

R-26. In the event that a recipient does not wish to avail herself of the educational advantages of any scholarship which she may win, it is understood that here will be no demands in fulfilling said scholarships.

R-27. If the recipient winning the titles Miss California State/California State's Young Woman of Achievement, Golden State's Youth Ambassador, California State Ambassador/California State's Young Man of Achievement and Golden State's Youth Ambassador marry during their respective terms of office, the Board of Directors of the Youth Focus Inc., may at their will, forfeit their titles, and forfeit the scholarships so designated as well.

R-28. Recipient understands, agrees and acknowledges that scholarship awards are not disbursed in cash but are sent directly to the school or institution in which recipient is enrolled upon receipt of proper billing(s) following review and approval by the Youth Focus Inc. Board of Directors. Recipient agrees to forward to the Youth Focus Office all applicable required forms as follows:

1. Billing from School or Institution.
2. Receipt for reimbursable expenses as stipulated in the above rules and regulations (e.g. books).
3. College certification form with the seal of the college or university. Forms without the college or university seal will not be accepted and recipient will forfeit said scholarship award accordingly. The certification form must be filled out by the college or university official. Any falsified documentation will result in forfeiture of the scholarship award.
4. Recipients on full scholarships by colleges, universities, foundations or other awards programs may not be funded by Youth Focus Scholarships if the recipient is being paid or reimbursed double for tuition fees and applicable expenses.
